AND THAT IS THE REASON IT RAINS.

A Big Republican Lovefeast at the St. Louis Club.

ANCIENT FOES BREAK BREAD.

Filley and McCullagh Were at the Festal Board but Walbridge and Frank Were Absent.

Chauncey Ives Filley and Joseph Burbridge McCullagh ate dinner together at the St. Louis Club Thursday evening. That's the reason it's raining to-day and the sun is hidden behind inky clouds.

There were others at the dinner, among them ten Republican Congressmen-elect: C. N. Clark of the First District, George C. Crowther of the Fourth, John P. Tracey of the Seventh, Joel D. Hubbard of the Eighth, William Treloar of the Ninth, Richard Bartholdt of the Tenth, F. J. Joy of the Eleventh, John H. Renshaw of the Thirteenth, N. A. Mossey of the Fourteenth and Charles G. Burton of the Fifteenth.

Besides these there were also present by special invitation: James Parsons, Chas. Nagel, Emil Freerius, F. G. and Thos. Niedringhaus, L. J. W. Wall, Henry Zieggenhein, Halsey C. Ives, Wm. H. Clegg, John S. Smith, P. J. Spencer, Franklin Ferris and F. B. Brownell.

Benjamin Franklin Russell, post laureate of the newspaper, was at the House at Jefferson City, which Uncle Filley organized and then turned over to Col. Bill Price, so go on the archimandrite level which the wife of the editor had long been yearning to come down and join in the feast. He brought his mugs with him, but not once did he get a glass. The reason? The rumble of that "Invincible tread" seemed to be ringing in his ears and making him ill. The editor, Miss Klaus, 16 years old, and Mrs. Duff, 15, both employed at the house of W. F. Rondebusch, 888 Bates avenue. They occupy together an apartment in the rear of the second floor.

Last Tuesday night the young girl returned home from the party, having luxuriant tresses of which they are particularly proud. Miss Duffy's hair was especially beautiful, falling in graceful ringlets. The girls' dresses are simple, and each other's tresses before they retired, and then fell to sleep, never dreaming that they would be the craft of one of their chief beauties.

Miss Duffy was the first to arise next morning. One glance at her companion, and then from the couch with a shriek. The head that had been pillow'd beside her own was closely cropped and she was shocked to find that her hair had so changed that she had not recognized her. The shriek awakened Miss Klaus, and as she sprang from her bed she pulled her over to the mirror. Miss Klaus almost fainted when she espied herself in the glass. "This is the end," said Miss Duffy. "One of your curls has been cut off too," she exclaimed.

But, be it as it may, everybody who was there is a fool. Col. Bill Price, the dinner, was a great success socially, even though the poetical Russell was not permitted to recite an ode on the lyrical Treloar, though the grand old man of Audrain County, was hurried away by the necessity of catching an early train before he got home, without his hat, and ran tremulously across the taut fiddle string.

Mr. Tracey, too, was rushed away before his coffee committee, owing to the roar of the audience, and the editor, who was not permitted to speak, was not even allowed to leave the room.

But, the mystery was not made up except the editor, who was excused only on condition that he would write with his own hand an account of the affair for the paper on the following day. And, as he had a jubilant key, and the flesh pots which are supposed to strew the streets of Jefferson City, were still open, he was soon in the grasp of the Republicans of Missouri, even though the election is nearly a year off.

The point of chief interest determined was that the Hon. Benjamin Franklin Russell is possessed of a too valuing ambition with a corresponding lack of tact. He is the United Missouri delegation for Sergeant-at-Arms of the next House, which, by the grace of Thomas Brackett Reed, will organize the new Senate. It appears that those who are going to attend to such matters, the sweet singer of Springfield is given the office of Sergeant-at-Arms. How! There is danger that some impudent statesman from somewhere will bob up with the assertion that he will be the next Senator. If that is the case, the author of the election will be distributed to the hungry from less deserving sections.

The new members-elect see in this great menace to the interest of each and all of them. Not a one of them but has a large number of constituents who are going to get a seat at Washington this winter or know the reason why, but the patronage at the disposal of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House is not to be despised.

He has been unwise to ascertain whether one or more were implicated.

DRASTAS.

BAUMGARTNER.—Suddenly, on Thursday, Nov. 7, at 5 p. m., H. F. Baumgartner, a young man of broad views, judged from a Turkish standpoint. He is expected to exert a moderating influence between the reformists and the Mohammedans. But the remedy suggested is an increased number of secret arrests or secret executions, and therefore the advice of the powers does not meet with response.

"Much also has been said about the bloodshed in the provinces and the enormous detriment to trade in the greater part of Asia Minor and Syria. But the only answer is the annihilation of the reform scheme by the appointment of two palace guards to the Board of Control, of which one of them is President of the capital."

"Among the advice tendered him, much bears upon the insecurity of the capital as evidenced by the September riots, which left the Mohammedans in a state of unprovoked excitement. But the remedy suggested is an increased number of secret arrests or secret executions, and therefore the advice of the powers does not meet with response.

But the only answer is the annihilation of the reform scheme by the appointment of two palace guards to the Board of Control, of which one of them is President of the capital."

"Nowhere, however, are fears entertained of any wholesale fanatical outbreak against the Christians. The danger lies quite in another direction."

He is expected to exert a moderating influence between the reformists and the Mohammedans. But the remedy suggested is an increased number of secret arrests or secret executions, and therefore the advice of the powers does not meet with response.

"Much also has been said about the bloodshed in the provinces and the enormous detriment to trade in the greater part of Asia Minor and Syria. But the only answer is the annihilation of the reform scheme by the appointment of two palace guards to the Board of Control, of which one of them is President of the capital."

"Nowhere, however, are fears entertained of any wholesale fanatical outbreak against the Christians. The danger lies quite in another direction."

THE MISSISSIPPI LESSON.

The advocates of the single gold standard and particularly the heelers of the “Admiral” nation point to the defeat of free silver candidates in Kentucky and the Eighteenth Illinois District as proof of the disastrous effect of free silver on the Democratic party.

In New York the Democrats nominated gold standard candidates on an outspoken gold standard platform. What was the cause of their defeat by an enormous majority?

In New Jersey the Democrats nominated gold standard candidates on a gold standard platform. What was the cause of their complete rout?

In Massachusetts gold standard candidates on a gold standard platform were crushingly defeated by the Republicans. Why were they defeated?

In Ohio the Republicans overwhelmed the Democrats, who had gold standard candidates on a gold standard platform. What was the cause of Democratic defeat there?

In Iowa the Federal postmasters and gaugers voted down a free silver plan and constructed a gold standard platform and the result was a disastrous Democratic defeat. What was the cause of that defeat?

In Maryland the Democracy for the first time nominated gold standard candidates on a gold standard platform and for the first time since the war suffered a most humiliating defeat. What was the cause of that defeat?

In Pennsylvania Democratic gold standard candidates on a gold standard platform were shown under. How was the loss of votes there to be accounted for?

In Mississippi the Democrats nominated a free silver candidate, who had defeated a gold standard competitor, and adopted a straight-out free silver platform, the same platform adopted by the Missouri Free Silver Democratic convention, and the result was a sweeping victory for Democracy. What was the cause of the Mississippi victory?

The case then stands thus: Free silver candidates were defeated in Kentucky and the Eighteenth District and free silver gained a sweeping victory in one State. On the other hand gold standard candidates were defeated in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Iowa—wherever the people got a chance at one the route was complete and overwhelming.

The most important lesson in the campaign was the victory in Mississippi, and it was so plain that a blind man can see it.

SPAIN'S LOSING STRUGGLE.

Two very significant pieces of news come from Cuba. One is that the Spaniards on the island, believing that it is lost to Spain, are departing in great numbers, and the other is that Gen. Campos is in despair over the demoralized condition of the Spanish Army in Cuba.

Several causes are given for the demoralization of the Spanish forces. The soldiers are not paid and are not supplied with proper food or clothing. They are said to be in rags and dying off like sheep. Another cause of demoralization is the affiliation of many of the soldiers with the Cubans. A large percentage of the regular army are natives of Cuba, or have intermarried with Cubans, and these have refused to fight the Cubans.

The early collapse of the Spanish campaign is indicated by this information. Spain cannot stand a much harder drain than is now made on her resources by the Cuban war. The last contingent of 12,000 troops sent from Spain increased the force utilized in Cuba and Cuban waters to a total of 85,000 men. The naval forces employed in Cuban waters include forty-six vessels of all kinds. With her finances in a chronic state of collapse and her arms pay in arrears Spain is in desperate straits.

The view that the time is ripe for the United States to extend the hand of fellowship to free Cuba is well founded.

Again yesterday it was necessary to publish a 16-page Post-Dispatch, in order to accommodate the advertisers. In the matter of advertising, both local and foreign, the Post-Dispatch is breaking all its previous records. During October it far exceeded all previous Octobers, and the big Republican majority in the Ohio Legislature is partly due to a skillful gerrymander violating the spirit of the Constitution. Still, we are rid of Briece, and that is something.

Blackburn and Hardin should see to it that not a solitary Carlisle or Administration man gets on the Kentucky delegation to the Democratic National Convention next year.

Benjamin Harrison, in the face of the Ohio figures, may seem to be hugging his law practice closer, but he knows full well that the convention has not yet been called to order.

W. O. Bradley seems almost to have a clinch on the Republican nomination for Vice-President. He will be worked for a sample of Republican magnanimity to the south.

Too many earnest Americans were on the toboggan slide of last Tuesday to take much interest in the one that goes with the Leadville ice palace next winter.

The “life-long Democrat” who writes doggerel for the Globe-Democrat evidently means to cut short the lives of the few remaining readers of that paper.

Papa: “But how are they to get harmony, Papa?”

Papa: “That, my son, is very simple. The hundred thousand men must submit to the bosom of the few men. Then will be no trouble. All will be lovely.”

Papa: “But, Papa, why don’t they do the other way? Why don’t the few men get ‘harmony’ by doing what the hundred thousand want done?”

Papa: “There, my son, is the mystery. But when you get older you’ll understand boss politics better. In the bright lexicon of boshism ‘harmony’ means that everybody else shall do what the boss wants.”

KING'S HIGHWAY.

The agitation to change the name of King's Highway appears to have subsided. “All well. Attention may now be devoted to the theater hat, the autumnal poem and the price of bloomers.”

During November the large number of letters that came to the Post-Dispatch urging some other name for King's Highway were exactly balanced by the number of letters received protesting against any change. So much good black ink and gray brain matter wasted! Wasted? Well, perhaps the protests were not altogether wasted. For if the name changers had been allowed to have their way, consider this result.

The American people love consistency, and St. Louis people cannot afford to be inconsistent. Hence, all people by the name of King would have had to change their names. Then there are plenty of people named Duke and quite a number that have the aristocratic cognomen of Earl. There are a few Princesses also and some Lords. What a lot of confusion the change of all these would have caused.

We might go further and insist that consistency would demand that all boys having the hated name of George should be banished to the country where King George held Court. But enough. The necessity for all this has been averted. King's Highway will survive, and the people of St. Louis may save their energies for other crusades.

MERIT BEFORE NATIONALITY.

A correspondent writes complaining because the United States has been called an Anglo-Saxon nation, and says: “I also think it an outrage that they (the Anglo-Saxon race) should forever hold the highest positions within the gift of the American people.” The correspondent signs himself “A Teuton-Celt,” and insists that this is a cosmopolitan country.

All this pother about what nationality has the office is puerile. It being essential for the good of the country that the best men should hold the offices. It is not too much to say that, in a free republic, if men of Chinese or Hottentot or even of American origin should win their way to the highest offices by force of intellect and character, the country should acquiesce and be glad of it.

It is rather surprising that one who by his signature indicates that he is of mixed Irish and German origin should make such complaint. The Teuton and Celt surely have no reason for dissatisfaction with their share of the offices. And if they have so far failed to supply candidates for the very highest positions in the gift of the people, it is because they have sought offices of less honor, which are nevertheless as necessary and useful as the highest.

If our correspondent aims at being truly cosmopolitan he must abjure all such narrowness and place merit before nationality where, in the nature of things, it belongs.

One result of Tuesday's election is that the hydro of Aspinwall Republicans who have been disengaged as Democrats in the United States will be largely reduced. Briece and Gibson are retired. Gorman will go as soon as the voters can get at him directly and the sweeping Republican victory in New Jersey shows that the Democrats of that State will be equal to the emergency.

Not the Kind of Harmony.

From the Springfield (Mo.) Leader-Democrat.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch uncovers a move on the part of the gold standard men in Missouri to accomplish the postponement of the State Convention for the election of delegates to the Democratic National Convention to the latest possible date.

The purpose of this is obvious. Long before that date New York, Pennsylvania and all of the New England States will have chosen their delegates and instructed them to fight to the last ditch for the maintenance of the Cleveland financial policy within the party, accompanied by the threat of a bolt if the Western and Southern wing of the party holds out to the end for declaration in favor of free moneymaking coinage.

The hope of those who are engineering the scheme in Missouri is that the bold and defiant stand of the Eastern Democracy will bring the indisputably dominant silver element in Missouri to such terms of compromise as will result in sending from this State to the National Convention either a divided delegation or one so made up as to be easily controlled by gold.

But it is a plan that will fail in its purpose. Missouri Democrats will not be lulled to inactivity by the siren cry of “harmony” sounded through this channel by these goldite schemers. The Perfle Springs Convention was held for a purpose. Its mandates will not be overthrown.

Shrewd Little Duka.

From the Washington Post.

The Duke of Marlborough brought his own lawyer from England. He didn't care to antarist strangers with the delicate task of drawing these papers which show how much he and his coming bride love each other.

Thomas Reed would like to ask his low-countrymen how it is that the McKinley boom is helped by the Ohio election when Bushnell, a person comparatively unknown, gets a larger vote than was given Mr. Carnegie's Napoleon.

In the overflowing Republican House there may be some statesmen who will imagine themselves quite as knowing as speaker sted. Thomas has a hard row to hoe before he looks on a ripe Presidential crop.

The big Republican majority in the Ohio Legislature is partly due to a skillful gerrymander violating the spirit of the Constitution. Still, we are rid of Briece, and that is something.

Blackburn and Hardin should see to it that not a solitary Carlisle or Administration man gets on the Kentucky delegation to the Democratic National Convention next year.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

Democrats and Republicans Will Be Equally Divided.

EACH SIDE HAVING 69 VOTES.

Returns for Governor Show That Bradley's Majority Will Be Over 18,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—The Evening Post says that the Genes will probably win a tie when it meets, and the election of a successor to Senator Blackburn is a matter of course. The Democrats have 68 votes and one Democratic-Populist vote, making a total of 69.

The Republicans will have 68 and one Republican Alliance vote, making a total of 69. The Republicans claim that the Lieutenant-Governor, Worthington, will have the decisive vote, thus insuring them the senatorship. This is an error, however, as the Lieutenant-Governor, as president of the Senate, cannot vote on joint ballot.

A special to the Evening Post from Danville, Ky., says: Hon. John W. Yerkes, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, to-day announced that he would not allow his name to be presented for United States Senator.

Bet and Lost Their Whiskers.

BAYONNE, N. J., Nov. 8.—Three prominent bewhiskered Democrats have paid calls on H. C. Carter, a scheming Republican, in an effort to induce him to shave having shaved them off and delivered the remains upon the Griggs election. Carter played safe, however, for he set his own mustache three times.

Total Vote.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—The total vote for Gen. Drake, Republican candidate for Governor of Iowa, on nearly complete unofficial returns is 207,363; Judge Babb, D. M. C., Democrat, 187,363; and Dr. T. C. Drake's plurality over Babb is $1,931. His majority over all is $2,995. The plurality of the Republicans for Lieutenant-Governor on the Republican ticket, Matt Parsons, will be about 70,000. Sabin for School Superintendent and Given, for Supreme Judge, will have 75,000. It is estimated that Perkins, for Railroad Commissioner, will have 60,000.

Tammany to Be Reorganized.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Unless all signs fail, Tammany Hall will be reorganized and Tammany Hall before many months roll around. There is a demand for it from the rank and file, and the leaders will have to agree to the wishes of the following:

This reorganization would have taken place before the election had it not been for the opposition of the Tammany men in the wigmaw that such a course would endanger the success of the county ticket.

Ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant is being again spoken of as the man most likely to lead such a movement.

Indiana Populists Knocked Out.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 8.—A special to the Record from Indianapolis, Ind., says:

The Indiana Populists are within the next month, the Populist party in this State will disband. The men who have been carrying on the agitation for four years have decided that there is no future for the party in this State, and that they might as well abandon it. E. B. Cummins, of South Bend, chairman of the State Committee, has tendered his resignation. The officers and members of the State Committee will, it is said, follow the example set by the Indiana Populists. While some leading the party here say they have information that the members of the Executive Committee of the National Committee have decided to resign, the Populist party in Indiana received its first blow three weeks ago, when the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association, which was the strongest.

There is some talk of organizing a labor party, which shall take up and advocate the principles for which Populists have been standing.

Strong and Roosevelt at Odds.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Since election day there has been a revival of talk of trouble between Mayor Strong and Commissioner Roosevelt, the new enforcement. One man who ought to know said:

"This is what will happen: The Mayor will send for Mr. Roosevelt in a day or two and let him know that he got to 'back face'."

"Then what will happen?"

"I think he will be some trouble. Mebe the irresistible will find itself in conflict with the immovable, and you can figure out the result."

It is not believed that Mr. Roosevelt will abandon his position. He says he is ready to enforce any law which the Legislature fails to choose, and that he will do his duty in that way. The law remains as it is, and while he remains in a position of responsibility for its enforcement, he will be enforced. It is not thought likely that he will resign, no matter where a hint to do so may come from.

Lessons Hill's Chances.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Senator Hill's friends admit that his chances for re-election to the United States Senate have been greatly dimmed. They say that he will in all probability be beaten in private life at the end of his term. He has shared the fate of Gorham, Brice and Smith, who defected from their own party. It may be a mere coincidence, but it is nevertheless true, that the men who have been hardest hit at the polls are the Senators who held up the Wilson bill, thereby embarrassed the national Democratic party.

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYER.—Frank Watson, clerk in Ludwig's music store, 514 Walnut street, was arrested on the charge of stealing a mandolin from his employer.

NO CONSUMPTIVE WILL DIE
SO LONG AS HE CAN DIGEST AND ASSIMILATE FOOD.

All physicians admit this. Yet here the difficulty begins. How can we build up the consumptive's body so fast as the disease tears it down? Let us consider.

Cough mixtures must be avoided because they frequently contain opiates which arrest the digestion. Their only effect on the cough is by stupefying the nerves. Let them alone.

All foods that are hard to digest must be avoided, especially fats and oils. Only those foods that are easily digested and assimilated should be eaten. Foods not digested by nature do no good; they do not what is required, and when they are digested and assimilated give flesh and strength.

Consumption is starvation, slow or rapid, as may be. The first symptom is, not necessarily a cough, but a tendency to lose flesh, to grow thin. Stop this tendency now. Don't wait for obvious lung trouble. That's only a later development—only a minor point.

Stop the wasting and you master the disease—whatever it may have made some other invalid already. Increase the flesh and the danger is past.

What is needed is an especially prepared food—nutritive in itself and a digestor of other foods.

Such an article is the Shaker Digestive Cordial, made by the Shaker Community of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y. It creates a natural appetite and insures the digestion of what is eaten with it. It overcomes the wasting which is fatal in the consumptive person.

A man may lose money and not die bankrupt. One may have consumption and not die of it. This is science and sense. The success of this new remedy gives lie.

CHINAMEN BEHEADED.

Five of the Vegetarian Leaders Executed at Hwasang.

A HARMLESS, NECESSARY KEY.

That Is What John Simon Said Was

His Weapon.

John Simon chased Harry Mindich over Easton avenue Thursday night with a long bright thing which Mindich thought was a knife.

Simon swore to Judge Stevenson Friday morning that he only had a key in his hand when he gave Mindich the run, and he was let off with a fine of $10.

Before they were put to death there was an imposing ceremony in a tent on the execution grounds. The members of the Chinese community who went to Ku Cheng to witness the execution of the five Vegetarian leaders were publicly beheaded here at 9 o'clock this morning.

KNOCKED DOWN BY GUS BUSCH.

S. H. Levy Injured in an Early Morning Brawl.

HEAD INJURED BY THE FALL.

He Made Himself Very Objectionable to a Party and Started a Fight.

There was a fight in the cafe at Tony Papp's corner of Broadway and Elm street, shortly after midnight last night, in which S. H. Levy, living at 4044 Morgan street, city salesman in the employ of Wyckoff, Seaman & Benedict, 711 Locust street, was seriously hurt. Levy was carried from the barroom in an unconscious condition and taken in a hansom to the Planters' Hotel, where a physician was called to dress his wounds. He did not recover consciousness until morning.

Gus Busch, son of the millionaire brewer, Adolphus Busch, is said by eye-witnesses to have started the fight. The party consisted of Gus Busch, young Dave Nipper, Tom Anderson, a boy on the C. L. Pope, the theater manager; Tom Flinnerty and Bart Ready, well-known saloon men; John Sayings, and Herbert Young, business manager of the Chronicle. Flinnerty left before the fight occurred.

The contestants disagree as to the exact manner in which Levy received his injury. According to one story, he struck a powerful blow in the face, and fell down, as though he had been struck with a club. Some say he had struck a chair in falling; others that he had been struck in the ear after his fall, and the party kicked him behind the ear after he fell.

Levy has a lump on the back of the head, and the blow that caused it is said to have been so severe that the injury it would seem to bear out the claims of Busch's friends that Levy's head struck the back of a chair as he fell.

For more than an hour before the trouble occurred, a party of workmen who had been to the town hall sat at a table in Faust's drinking and eating lunch. The party consisted of Gus Busch, young Dave Nipper, Tom Anderson, a boy on the C. L. Pope, the theater manager; Tom Flinnerty and Bart Ready, well-known saloon men; John Sayings, and Herbert Young, business manager of the Chronicle. Flinnerty left before the fight occurred.

While they were sitting there M. J. Lehewald and S. H. Levy, typewriter salesman employed by Wyckoff, Seaman & Benedict, and a boy on the C. L. Pope, the theater manager, explained that they were strangers in the city and were out for a little fun. They asked if they might join the party, and were told they could. They got up, and, up which they agreed to do. Introductions followed and the strangers seated themselves.

Presently one of them began to belittle the grocery business of St. Louis. Nicholas was born in St. Louis, "born" the Anheuser-Busch Brewery. Gus Busch angrily took issue with him and a wordy war ensued. They would have settled it amicably for the entertainment of the friends of both parties.

The contestants were quieted down, and the conversation was resumed. Levy, who had been somewhat worried in the argument, said:

"You fellows are all right; you ought not to think so good thing that way."

Busch jumped up and refused to allow Levy to pay the bill. He pulled $10 from his pocket and handed it to the waiter. Then he took Levy's money and tossed it back to him with the remark: "You are a cheap screw."

Levy retorted this, and one word brought him down. Busler struck at Martin, and received a stinging blow in the face. Everybody stood up, and, confused, the fight was placed in the hands of the police. He was taken to the Planters', but is believed to have been taken home from there.

Mr. Gus Busch was seen at the brewery Friday and gave the following as his side of the trouble.

"I had ordered some cigars and made a kick about the price or change he received. I handed him his money back and he said, 'You know what you are not wanted.' At the same time I shoved him away and he struck me on the cheek. I then returned to him and he hit me again. I fell forward and when got through disentangling myself from him I went out and returned home. This morning I heard Levy had been beaten, and, fearing it if such is the case, it was done after I left.

Levy acted ugly all night and was reported to have been beaten by his friend that he would get into trouble if he was not more careful in his language."

When he got to his office Monday he gave substantially the same version of the affair as told above. He and Lehewald, Levy's friend, agree in every particular, save that the latter is rather inclined to believe he blamed Busch and referred to him as a hot-headed fellow. Lehewald says Levy has a wife, who is a widow, and recently came to St. Louis. He declared that Levy remained in an unconscious condition all night and was unprovoked.

Miss Levy said that it was a brutal and unprovoked assault. Her husband was brought home unconscious, she said. The doctor, however, told her nobody would tell Levy. She says her husband told her he gave Busch no cause at all to strike him and that he deserves to be beaten. When he leaves, kicked him in the head after he fell. Mrs. Levy said Busch would call this afternoon to see her husband.

TYLER PLACE RESIDENTS

The residents and property owners of Tyler place are preparing for an attack on the House of Delegates. They want the Railroads to move the Mill street line and install trams to extend its line south on Vandeventer avenue through Tyler place to Tower Grove Park.
